Subject: Nigel Price – Vice President of Commercial Building Products

We are thrilled to announce the promotion of Nigel Price, to Vice President of Commercial Building Products.

Nigel joined the company 15 years ago and has advanced through our organization progressively learning the business from the ground up. Over the last 10 years Nigel has played a key role in our Sales Department and has been passionately expanding our product offerings to include a comprehensive line of Commercial Building Products. He has personally overseen the operational requirements of this division to ensure the satisfaction of our valued clients.

Nigel has worked alongside our vendors to develop a winning product offering for our customer base right down to their specific regional requirements. This included bringing new products to market and developing contractor training to assist our clients in becoming industry leaders in these new products.

Nigel brings a wealth of experience and passion to the Commercial Building Material arm of our company, and we are excited about his new role at the company.

Please join us in welcoming Nigel as Vice President of Commercial Building Products and congratulating him on his new promotion at nigel@hermanssupply.com or call or text him at 905-328-7435.

Best regards,

Matthew Schrompf
President
